

Global Recognition

Presented To:

Anupama Navaneethan

Congratulations on your achievement of a Platinum Award

Anupama has worked diligently through the UAT and post implementation phases of the VVOE initiative of Nov '12. The sheer hard work and long hours of analysis and testing that she has put in has spanned all of the days and nights, including the weekends leading upto the deployment and was instrumental in delivering the new configuration capability that was being requested as part of the VVOE initiative.
